OUTLINES.

Peace negotiations between Russia and Japan have so far progressed that the warring powers have officially notified President Roosevelt that his peace proposal is accepted and plenipotentiaries will be appointed to arrange the terms of peace——The army and navy manoeuvres began yesterday and theoretically the enemy's ships slipped into the bay and proceeded to Washington and Baltimore but the forts sunk the battleship Texas and four torpedo boats destroyers, one running on a mine——A bloody feud was wound up in Tennessee yesterday with three men shot to death and one mortally wounded, near Tate Springs——The troubles of the Equitable Assurance Society are about to end in its consolidation with two big trust companies, the three combined to have deposits of $169,000,000, making it next to the National City Bank, of New York, the greatest financial institution in the United States; former President Cleveland accepts the trusteeship of the Hyde stock and in a letter utters words of wisdom about duty and integrity——Yesterday the initial 18-hour Flyer of the Pennsylvania Railroad broke the world's long distance run record, scurrying from New York to Chicago in 17 hours and 57 minutes; the train made one mile in 23 1-3 seconds, reeled off many in 44 and 50 seconds, and for 131 miles averaged 68.6 miles per hour——New York markets: Money on call easy, 2 to 2 1-4 per cent., closing bid 2, offered at 2 1-4; cotton spot, quiet, 8.70; flour steady and unchanged; wheat firm, No. 2 red, 1.05 bid in store; corn, firm, No. 2, 62 1-2 elevator; oats, steady, mixed, 35 to 35 1-2; turpentine, dull and easy, 63 to —63 1-2; rosin, dull and unsettled; strained, common to good, 3.35.

For North Carolina—Fair Tuesday in interior, clearing on the coast; Wednesday fair; light northwest winds becoming variable.

Many a man has made a good point and then had it broken off in him by somebody else.

To steal a chicken at present prices in Wilmington could certainly not be classed as petit larceny.

Hon Leslie Shaw, Secretary of the Treasury, is trying to keep the treasury deficit in the dark. He has ordered that economy be used in lighting the public buildings all over the country

Says the Philadelphia Record: "Stupid are those who stoop to folly." The stoopers can always tell you that folly never misses the opportunity to put on them all the burden they can carry.

A Pittsburg man is suing for a divorce because his wife compels him to drink coffee drawn from grounds a week old. Coffee drinkers will agree that the old man has sufficient grounds for complaint.

At Sharon, Pa., last Saturday a bride danced 12 hours and got $225 for her endurance. She may find out, however, that she will need greater endurance to stand the song and dance which her husband will commence rendering when he begins to come home late of nights.

"A mysterious hole, deep and cavernous" has been discovered in Pennsylvania. P. S. We understand that Marion Butler and Republican State Chairman Rollins have bought three linotype machines and about July 1st will commence work on just such a hole in which to lose Congressman Spencer Blackburn.

A Cleveland woman, provoked because her landlord refused to repair the roof of her house, put on a pair of pants, climbed onto the roof and patched it herself. A crowd gaped at her because she wore a man's breeches, but we are thinking how queer she appeared in mending the roof instead of doing like some women whose long suit is to "take the roof off the house."

Minister Griscom at Tokio, Japan, has sent President Roosevelt some trophies from the battlefields of Manchuria. They include rifles, bayonets, swords and cartridge shells. Two rifles and bayonets were taken from Russians who fought in the trenches at the siege of Port Arthur. If the President hangs them up on the wall with his bear skins, it might give offense to the Russian Bear.

LOCAL DOTS.

—Other local on fourth page.

—Messrs. J. P. Gibson and R. G. Bullock have returned from Rocky Mount where they attended the bi-monthly meeting of the O. R. T. meeting for this district.

—The Central Labor Committee has about decided to go to Norfolk or Newborn for its Labor Day celebration this year. However, definite announcement will be made later.

—Thursday week has been decided upon as the date for the dedication of the Boys' Brigade new armory. Gov. Glenn will deliver the address and an interesting order of ceremonies will be observed.

—The first watermelons of the season made their appearance at the Dixie Cafe, on Princess street, yesterday. They are of the famous Georgia variety and are finding ready sale at from 40 to 50 cents each.

—Mr. H. D. Burkheimer and two charming young daughters, Misses Florence and Annie, are here from Charlotte, having come to accompany Mr. Burkheimer's mother home. The Misses Burkheimer will visit their grandmother here.

—Major Simonson, a high official of the Salvation Army, will arrive here to-morrow from Baltimore and will conduct services Wednesday and Thursday nights. Friday night the local post will hold an open air meeting at Eighth and MacRae streets.

—The Consolidated Company has taken a progressive step in the employment of an advertising agent for the suburban line and the delightful country which it touches. Mr. Nathan J. Hoyt has taken the position and good results are certain to follow his efforts.

—Messrs. M. J. Corbett, W. A. Rourk, R. R. Stone, B. O. Stone, W. A. Sanders and other promoters of the Little River fisheries have about closed a deal for the purchase of the Cape Fear Fisheries at Old Brunswick, so it is announced, and will not open their Little River fisheries until next season.

—In lieu of the evening sermon at Grace church Sunday, Rev. N. M. Watson, pastor of the congregation, gave some impressions gained at the recent South Atlantic Missionary Conference at Asheville. Rev. Mr. Watson's review of the proceedings of that great meeting is spoken of as being very interesting and inspiring.

—Cards are out announcing the forthcoming marriage of Miss Carolina Sophia Steenken and Mr. Robert L. Burton, which will be celebrated to-morrow at the home of the bride's mother, on Fourth, between Nixon and Taylor streets. Mr. Burton is a popular young employe of the Angola Lumber Co., in this city.

THE COUNTY JAILBREAKERS.

Preliminary Trial Before Justice Furlong—Case of Elijah Russ.

Nine of the twelve prisoners, who recently escaped from the county jail and were recaptured, were given preliminary hearing before Justice Furlong at noon yesterday upon the formal charge of jail breaking, the maximum penalty for which is two years imprisonment. They were each bound over to answer for the misdemeanor at the June 26th term of Superior Court. Several of the prisoners made statements incriminating one another, but none of the stories was regarded by the trial justice as worthy of belief. Jailer Ed. Capps, Policemen Leon George, I. F. Huggins, Constable W. B. Savage, Special Deputy Wm. Sheehan and other officers who figured in the arrest of the escapes were examined as witnesses to establish the charge against each of the defendants.

In the afternoon the five prisoners under final sentence to the roads were sent out to the convict stockade to begin their terms. The appeal in behalf of John Bishop, sentenced to two years for implication in the murder of Wiley Kelly, will probably be withdrawn by his counsel, Geo. L. Peschau, Esq.

Elijah Russ, one of the negroes charged with breaking into Freeman's store at Carolina Beach and who had not previously been bound over to the higher court, was given preliminary trial before Justice Furlong later in the afternoon yesterday. Russ was recommitted to jail in default of $200 bond and will be tried at the term of Superior Court beginning next Monday week. He was captured after his escape from jail by Sheriff Stedman and party in lower Brunswick county. The store breaking with which he was charged occurred in April but he was arrested only the night before he escaped from jail and had not been given preliminary trial until yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Saunders Bereaved.

Many friends of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Saunders will sympathize with them deeply in the death of their little son, Edward S., 18 months old, who passed away at 8 o'clock yesterday morning at the family home, No. 610 Castle street. The little one had been ill for some time and while the death was not entirely unexpected, it came as a sad blow to the devoted parents. The funeral will be conducted at 3 o'clock this afternoon from the residence, Rev. J. P. King, of the Second Advent church, officiating.

YEAR OF FINE GROWTH

Twenty-five Per cent. in Past Two Years—Interesting History of the Order in State—Supreme Chancellor Will Attend.

Capt. T. D. Meares, supreme master of exchequer; Capt. Wm. F. Robertson, grand chancellor; Mr. J. D. Nutt, State deputy grand chancellor; Capt. James C. Morrison and Messrs. W. O. Page, W. C. Smith and G. F. Seitter, grand representatives, left yesterday afternoon for Charlotte where they will attend the 35th annual sessions of the Grand Lodge, Knights of Pythias, of the Domain of North Carolina. They were joined here by representatives from Southport, Chadbourn, Newbern and many other points in Eastern North Carolina, travelling to the Queen City over the Seaboard Air Line. The Grand Lodge sessions begin to-day and the Charlotte Pythians have made elaborate arrangements for the entertainment of the visitors, a banquet at the Southern Manufacturers' Club and a trolley party to Latta Park being among the pleasures on tapis for the Pythians of high degree.

Supreme Chancellor Chas. E. Shiveley, of Richmond, Ind., will be one of the distinguished visitors in attendance upon the Grand Lodge meetings, which promise this year to be of more than the usual interest. Grand Chancellor Robertson's annual report will show encouraging progress in all departments during the year. It is shown that while the order in the State is 35 years old, nearly 25 per cent. of the increase has been accomplished in the past two years.

Among the important recommendations by the retiring grand chancellor are as follows: That Pythian Big Night be made a regular annual event in the domain; the continuance of the clerical appropriation to the grand chancellor; that a special committee be appointed to consult with the editor of The Carolina Pythian and make such recommendations as they deem best for the aid and encouragement of that admirable organ; that $100 be appropriated for the aid and encouragement of the uniform rank in the domain; that the office of State deputy grand chancellor be continued.

The Charlotte Observer of yesterday prints the following interesting history of the Grand Lodge, which is linked so inseparably with Wilmington as to take the matter of local interest:

"The Grand Lodge of North Carolina was instituted December 21, 1871, in the city of Wilmington, and was composed of the only five lodges, viz: Stonewall Lodge, No. 1, Wilmington; Clarendon Lodge, No. 2, Wilmington; Center Lodge, No. 3, Raleigh; Germania Lodge, No. 4, Wilmington, and Cumberland Lodge, No. 5, Fayetteville, at which time the following officers were elected: William A. Johnson, Stonewall Lodge, Wilmington, grand chancellor; Octavius H. Blocker, Cumberland Lodge, No. 5, grand vice chancellor; Wm. H. Gerken, Germania Lodge, No. 4, grand keeper of records and seal; Samuel Merrill, Center Lodge, No. 3, grand master of exchequer; Geo. A. Poppe, Germania Lodge, No. 4, grand master at arms; John H. Phillips, Cumberland Lodge, No. 5, grand inner guard; L. C. Straughn, Cumberland Lodge, No. 5, grand outer guard, and Alexander T. London and H. E. Orr, supreme representatives."

ADJUSTING BERRY CLAIMS.

Committee From Truckers' Association in the W. & W. Section.

Hon. J. A. Brown, of Chadbourn, was a guest at The Orton last night returning from a trip up the Wilmington & Weldon railroad where he has been as a member of the committee from the Truckers' Association, assisting the growers in reaching an adjustment of the losses on strawberries by reason of the recent car shortage. The committee was at Burgaw yesterday and conducted a very thorough investigation of the condition which prevailed there during the period of freight congestion. The committee has now completed its work all over the belt, devoting not a little time and energy in arranging for the best possible settlement of the growers' claims. It is now up to the growers to accept or reject the basis of settlement arrived at by the committee, as they prefer.

Mr. Brown leaves on the 20th of June for Memphis, Tenn., to attend another important meeting in connection with the Southern Cotton Association.

Off For Louisville.

Capt. James I Metts, commander of Cape Fear Camp No. 254, U. C. V., left yesterday morning to attend the great Confederate reunion in Louisville, Ky., this week. Capt. J. R. Williams and Mr. F. A. Brown, two other representatives from the camp left Saturday. A special Pullman was attached to the outgoing train yesterday morning for the benefit of veterans who will go over the Atlantic Coast Line. At South Rocky Mount a big delegation of Fayetteville veterans joined the party as follows: Capt. W. E. Kyle Maj. A. A. McKethan, Capt. J. D. McNeill, and Messrs. W. G. Hall, B. G. Hollingsworth, J. W. Carroll, G. M. Rose, Geo. H. Hull, J. H. Culbreth, C. B. McMillan, A. H. Slocomb, James Hollingsworth, E. L. Clark, Thos. and Ed. Purdie. Mr. W. M. Cumming and family, of this city, took advantage of the fine opportunity for the trip and left with Capt. Metts yesterday morning.

EDWIN YEAMANS MOORE

Noble Young Life Has Gone Out and Community Mourns Its Loss—Friend's Tribute.

The following beautiful tribute to Edwin Yeamans Moore, whose sad death occurred Sunday night at half after eight o'clock after an illness of more than thirteen weeks with typhoid fever, is contributed by a friend and is given in lieu of anything that might be said by this paper in honor of a young man who was universally beloved and whose death has cast a shadow of gloom over this entire community:

"Edwin Yeamans Moore, son of the late Col. Roger Moore, was born in Wilmington January 21, 1882. He lived here without a break until he was about seventeen, when he spent a Winter in Newton, Mass., and attended the high school there. The following year he decided to go into business. He worked for a short time with Alex. Sprunt and Son, and with Col. Walker Taylor, before he found the work of his choice. From the day he entered the Murchison Bank up to his illness and indeed all through thirteen weary weeks, his dominating thought has been the bank. It was not time service that he gave to his profession, it was not wage service, but with earnestness and zeal and singleness of purpose, he sought to the minutest detail, the honor and the credit of the house that employed him, the attainment of his own vast ideal of duty. Others might be crowded with work, hurried to the point of moroseness, but Edwin Moore always had time to do all that fell to his share, and to lighten the labor of some one else. And in the still hours of the night when he toiled at his desk all alone his cheery whistle was an index to his attitude towards his work.

"In 1903 his eyes began to trouble him and he went again to visit his sister, Mrs. Bunning, in Newton, Mass., and took a long holiday. All that summer his health was very poor and in the Autumn when he was able, he secured a position in Boston and worked there until Christmas. The climate was severe, the Winter the hardest in six years and the ties of home were so strong that his resolution was taken to come back to Wilmington and try his chosen work again. He found his place waiting for him and his circle of boy friends most enthusiastic in welcoming him, and then he realized how homesick he had been; how much time he had wasted in separation and when the new year opened he joyfully resumed his old work and began again to exert his beneficent influence upon his associates.

"He had ever the soldiers' conception of a man's duty to his superior and to his country and through membership in the W. L. I. he proved his patriotism, but as a son of the Confederacy he had the profoundest conviction that his father's cause was just, and he staunchly supported his native Southland at home and abroad.

"From his early childhood he manifested those traits of character which distinguished him in his young manhood, but it would seem that these last eighteen months have fully ripened him. Almost as though he knew the time was short, he spent himself for others. Those who were friendless he sought and befriended; those who were weak and defenceless he provided for. He gave himself few pleasures, thinking always of the pleasures of others of what he could do for some one else and when we recall his buoyancy of temperament his sunny disposition and even above these his remarkable sympathy which made him adaptable to the old and to the young, we need not go further to find a cause for his great popularity. And yet, lovely as these traits were, there was an underlying force composed of the sterner virtues, that made him the reliable and trustworthy business man, and the perfect friend.

"He was ever loyal to the church of his choice and interested in its concerns and welfare. He made his religion respected and the force of his convictions and the loftiness of his aspirations told wonderful upon those with whim he came in contact. Edwin Moore's creed was even triumphant; 'God's in His heaven, all's right with the world.' This was his belief, this was the very note of his thought."

ROYAL ARCANUM INCREASE.

Local Councils Disturbed Over Decree of Supreme Tribunal.

Although official notice has not yet been received, members of the two local councils of the Royal Arcanum are considerably exercised over the decree from the Supreme Council that rates, especially upon the older policy holders, are to be very materially increased on October 1st. If not overruled by the local councils or the civil courts to which Virginia members are preparing to resort, the effect of the order, it is said, will be to cancel the policies of at least three-fourths of the members who are 65 years of age. On a policy of $3,000 the increase is to be to $16.08 per month. A Richmond minister in citing his case as a parallel to many others in the South says:

"I have been a member of the order about twenty-five years. The assessments on my policy and the claims of the local council of which I am a member, have cost me already about $3,000. I am now in my 69th year. I carry no other insurance on my life. Owing to my incapacity to do more than half work in the pastorate, my income is reduced to a point which renders it impossible to pay the increased assessment.

"The yearly published statements of the officers of the supreme council have led me to believe that the Royal Arcanum was on an absolutely solid foundation and could meet all of its obligations to policyholders. Now it appears that the order cannot continue in the insurance business without practically cancelling the policies of two-thirds of its old members.

"The old men will not submit to this outrage. They will combine to resist in the local councils and in the courts. If the action of the supreme council is not overruled, the Royal Arcanum and all kindred orders doing an insurance business are doomed to pass out of existence."

—License was issued yesterday for the marriage of Wm. Mason McCartney and Miss Georgie Moore. The ceremony was performed last night at 9 o'clock by the Rev. Merritt at No. 605 Queen street.

PYTHIAN MEMORIAL SERVICE.

Impressive Exercises in Academy of Music Sunday Afternoon.

Despite the centre of interest in the beaches and their manifold attractions, a goodly number of Pythians and their friends on Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock gathered in the Academy of Music and joined reverently in very pretty and appropriate memorial exercises in honor of members of the order, who have passed away during the past year. The stage was magnificently decorated with palms and flowers while the handsome lodge furniture from Castle Hall was used for occupancy by those who took part in the service.

Grand Chancellor Wm. F. Robertson presided over the services while other officers were Anson Alligood, vice chancellor; John Harr, prelate; Capt. T. D. Meares, master of work; Jno. F. Littleton, master at arms; John R. Owen, inner guard and Henry Gieschen, outer guard. The ushers were Messrs. L. Matthews, W. R. Taylor, F. A. Bissenger, Clayton Grant, D. D. Lennon and Bailey Fennell.

The musical numbers were by a special quartette composed of Mrs. Cameron F. MacRae, Mr. and Mrs. Greene Fenley and Mr. Alex. S. Holden, with Mr. James Charles Craft accompanist on a handsome Stieff piano, kindly loaned by the local manager in Wilmington. A solo by Mrs. MacRae with the added accompaniment by Mr. MacRae, on the violin, was especially enjoyed.

The address by Rev. R. W. Hogue was practical, and refreshing in that it differed from what one usually hears upon such an occasion. It was eloquently delivered in the clear, concise style of the gifted young rector and was listened to intently by all in the house.

Members of the four Pythian lodges in the city assembled at Castle Hall in the Murchison National Bank building half hour before the service and attended in a body.

AN UGLY AFFAIR, THIS.

White Child In Keping of Colored Woman—Police Investigated.

Police Sergeant C. S. Burnett investigated Sunday night a report to police headquarters that a white infant was in the keeping of a colored woman at southeast corner of Ninth and Queen streets and that the child was not receiving the nourishment and care that it needed; that the little thing was weak and emaciated and was either purposely or negligently being starved to death. The report was made by a white gentleman in the neighborhood and the facts as given were such that an immediate investigation was made.

Sergeant Burnett went to the house and found as a fact that the child was and had been for six of its seven months life in the keping of the colored woman, who said that it had been left with her as a wet nurse by a couple who had moved to South Carolina. She did not know or pretended not to know the names of the parents but said that the father of the child provided everything that the little one needed. She said the infant had everything it desired and that while it was weak and appeared thin, it was on account of the recent illness of the baby rather than the fact that it was not properly nourished. Sergeant Burnett found the conditions not so aggrevated as he thought from the first reports and reported his findings to headquarters. It is probable that some steps will be taken to restore the child to its parents, if their identity can be ascertained, and that the authorities will insist on the child's being provided for in a white family.

Special Trial Offer
THE MORNING STAR
At Reduced Rates
To New Subscribers

For the next sixty days will mail THE MORNING STAR to subscribers outside the city at the following reduced rates:

FOR ONE YEAR $4.00
FOR SIX MONTHS $2.00

Positively, no subscription will be taken at the reduced rates for a period less than six months. For one month the price will be, as heretofore, $1.25 for three months; or, fifty cents for one month.

This offer, as will be noted, is for a limited period only, and is made for the purpose of giving those who appreciate the value of a daily newspaper an opportunity to read the STAR for six months, or more, at a cost of about one and a quarter cents per copy, and then determine whether or not they will continue their subscription at the regular price.

No name will be entered on our books under this offer unless the order is accompanied with the cash.

While this proposition is made primarily to secure new subscribers, old subscribers outside the city may avail themselves of its advantages at the reduced rate provided they pay all arrearages and for not less than six months in advance.

On account of the heavy expense attached to our city circulation department this offer does not apply to city subscribers.

Sample copies mailed free to any address.

Note the conditions of this offer carefully to avoid mistakes.

The Morning Star.

WILLIAM H. BERNARD.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

Tuesday Morning, April 13.

SEC'Y SHAW IN GREENSBORO.

Secretary of the Treasury Leslie M. Shaw spent Saturday in Greensboro, and he was surprised at the thrift of that North Carolina city. Many people, even in North Carolina, would be astonished at the evidences of industry, prosperity and growth in Greensboro and other central Carolina cities. An account of Mr. Shaw's visit to Greensboro sent out from that city, says:

"Secretary of the Treasury Shaw has been accorded the freedom of the city literally since his arrival at 1 o'clock. He was met by city committees and escorted with honor to Congressman Black burn's home. He was allowed two hours rest. Then on a special trolley car, manufactured at High Point, he was taken to White Oak Mills, where he saw the largest equipped blue denim cotton goods mill in the world and the largest number of looms—three thousand—weaving in one room. From here to the State Normal & Industrial College for Women, and thence on a special Southern Railway train to Guilford Court House battleground, where the two $10,000 monuments erected by the national government to Generals Nash and Davidson, are nearing completion, and return, completed what he termed a 'most delightful itinerary.' The Secretary was enraptured with the company, telling brand new jokes in return for a few chestnuts, seemingly interested in everything he saw and every one he met, impressing all with his plain, straight-forward, genial, unaffected merit and wholesomness. To-night a reception was given at which the town people generally called to pay their respects, and the evening closed with an informal, but elegant luncheon, at which was present three hundred invited guests, many of them being bankers from various points in the State. Secretary Shaw was welcomed by Mayor Murphy in a short speech and responded briefly, touching particularly on the evidences of great development and progress he had witnessed in his whole trip in the South, and expressive of his astonishment at the big things he had seen since his arrival in Greensboro eight hours before."

It is gratifying to have distinguished visitors speak of the progress of North Carolina, and our people should always keep in mind that "it is no trouble to show goods." The more people see of what North Carolina is doing the more will be the advertisement of her matchless resources. No doubt Secretary Shaw will have many things to say of his trip to Greensboro.

MARION BUTLER'S PAPER.

A Washington dispatch on Sunday states that former Senator Marion Butler announces that the Daily Industrial News will begin publication at Greensboro July 1st. He authorized that announcement before leaving Washington to spend Sunday with his family at Eliott, near Clinton, Sampson county.

The Daily Industrial News is one of the Republican papers that have been projected for Greensboro, and it is the one promoted by Mr. Butler and Republican State Chairman Rollins. Mr. Butler is a director of the company, and he has just returned from New York where he completed the purchase of the outfit for his paper. He purchased three linotype machines bought a $15,000 G oss perfecting press capable of printing sixteen pages at a time, and it is said that the mechanical outfit will cost altogether not less than $30,000.

Mr. Butler is also authority for the statement that there will be plenty of money to run the Industrial News but he denounces as a liar the man who started the report that the syndicate seeking to collect the repudiated special tax bonds of North Carolina is furnishing the money.

The editors spoken of for the Butler paper are State Senator W. S. Pearson, of Morganton, ex-Secretary of State Cyrus Thompson, W. W. Hayward, editor of The Raleigh Tribune in 1897, J. E. Norton, editor of the late Asheville Gazette, and others are mentioned.

Butler and his crowd have gotten ahead of Congressman Spencer Blackburn and the other promoters of the Daily Tar Heel and it is quite probable that the Tar Heel will never see the light of day.

INDIAN VETERANS TO GO.

In the next few days the great Confederate reunion will take place at Louisville, and North Carolina will be well represented there. North Carolina will, however, be conspicuous at the reunion from the fact that among the veterans will be a number of Cherokee Indians from Haywood county. They will go with the Asheville veterans who will leave tonight for Louisville in a couple of sleepers.

There will be 11 Cherokees in the party. They belong to Sou-Ne-Kee Camp, U. C. V., and during the civil war served as scouts in the Confederate army. They are: Jess Reed; chief; Souat Owl, commandant; James Keg, Feasant, Jess Ann, Big Jim, Wesley Crow, John Jackson,——Chiltoss, John Lossn and John Oo-Sowee.

It is said that the Cherokees made excellent soldiers, and we expect North Carolina's "Red Men" Confederates will attract a great deal of attention at the reunion.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—The Chicago packers complain to the President that they are treated like common criminals. That is certainly wrong, for they are uncommon criminals, if anything.—Rochester Herald.

—Efforts are being made to induce the Governor of North Carolina to pardon the gold-brick swindlers who have served five of their ten years in the penitentiary of that State. It would be a very soft-heated Governor, indeed, who would pardon gold-brick swindlers.—Norfolk Landmark.

—Reports from the leading wheat States indicate that the general yield for 1905 will be 670,000,000 bushels, the largest since 1901. There are no official reports concerning the matter, but it is believed to be a safe enough bet that Gates and his crowd will not try to put all of this crop in a corner. —Richmond Times-Dispatch.

—The basis of the support of every newspaper that makes a legitimate living is in the town or city in which it is published. In Greensboro there are now two dailies, morning and afternoon, and two weeklies, one religious and the other secular. If the citizens generally and the business men merchants particularly, are to furnish livelihood in subscriptions and advertising to the two Republican dailies which are projected there, they won't have much money left to give up to reunion entertainments and Fourth of Jul. celebrations.—Charlotte Observer.

—The Raleigh Post says that when Governor Glenn and his party were in Washington last week that they spent a very pleasant half hour at the White House with President Roosevelt and that Governor Glenn told the President that the people of his State were very anxious to meet the President. Wonders never cease. During the campaign last fall Governor Glenn said on the stump that no self respecting white man in the South could vote for Roosevelt and he was very harsh in his denunciation of the President. Now how could the Governor sit down and talk socially with such a man and invite him to meet the people of his State?—Raleigh Caucasian, Republican.

—To the Georgia and Florida bankers Secretary Shaw repeated his recommendation for an emergency circulation, the notes not to be secured by bonds, but to pay the Government 5 per cent. interest, which interest would be far more than sufficient to indemnify the Government for any loss, and at the same time would insure the prompt retirement of the notes when the commercial rates of interest declined to 5 per cent. or something more This would introduce a certain amount of elacticity into the currency, and it closely resembles the German system, which has given good results. But it has been objected to projects of this sort that the appearance of an "emergency circulation" would create alarm because it would confess an emergency, and that while it would remedy a stringency, the thing most to be desired is to prevent one. The discussion, however, is valuabe because it prepares the public mind for a change in our currency legislation which is strongly resisted, but inevitable.—Philadelphia Record.

TWINKLINGS.

—"Bland hal a mania for proposing. What cured him?" "His wife. She married him."—Detroit Free Press.

Banx—How many times do you think a man ought to propose? Tanx—That depends—sometimes once is too often?—Detroit Free Press.

—Pearl—"Now if the earth is really flat there must be four corners?" Ruby—"Well, I bet if there is you will find a dude on each corner."—Detroit Tribune.

—Friend—"Why didn't you ever marry?" Maiden Lady—"Because, by the time my relations thought I was old enough to marry, the men thought I was too old."—New York Weekly.

—"Pa, what is an entente cordiale?" "That's a polite way of referring to it when a couple of fellows who haven't been the best of friends decide to let by-gones be by-gones and step in to have a drink on it."—Chicago Record-Herald.

—"Why do you waste so many hours on beautifying devices?" Inquired the old-fashioned woman. "Why not devote that time to thinking beautiful thoughts?" "O, fudge," retorted the modern damsel. "My beau isn't a mind-reader." — Louisville Courier-Journal.

Cutten—Jorgins is always bragging about his wife's cookery. Is she such a famous cook? Dryden—No; she's more than that. She's a hypnotist. She has Jorgins under such perfect control that he'll eat anything she cooks, no matter how bad it is.—Chicago Tribune.

—He—I suppose Catherine Brown has her hair bleached now. She—Yes; but how did you know? You've been away nearly a year—. He—Yes, but I thought that would be the next step. She had just begun to spell her name K-a-t-h-r-y-n when I went away—Philadelphia Press.

COTTON MARKETS.

New York, June 12.—The cotton market was moderately active but irregular, a good early advance being lost in the later trading. The opening was quiet and firm at an advance of 1 to 9 points on continued buying for both accounts such as was in progress toward the close of last week and which was based, apparently on the reports of strong markets all over the South, and encouraged by apprehensions of crop damage owing to high temperatures in Texas. Offerings were very light during the morning and prices worked up to a net advance of about 10 to 12 points, following which the market weakened under realizing and a renewal of bear pressure owing to expectations of a bearish bureau report tomorrow. The close was steady net unchanged to two points lower. Sales were estimated at 250,000 bales. Weather reports during the day were regarded as generally favorable aside from the claim of high temperatures in some sections, and private advices from the South seem rather more favorable as to crop conditions.

Liverpool will re-open tomorrow but will be closed again next Saturday and Monday.

Spot closed quiet; middling uplands, 8.70; middling gulf, 8.95.

Futures closed steady. June, 8.09; July, 8.17; August, 8.22; September, 8.26; October, 8.32; November, 8.37; December, 8.43; January, 8.48; February, 8.52; March, 8.58; April, 8.63; May, 8.68.

Dying of Famine

Is, in its torments, like dying of consumption. The progress of consumption, from the beginning to the very end, is a long torture, both to victim and friends. "When I had consumption in its first stage," writes Wm. Myers, of Cearfoss, Md., "after trying different medicines and a good doctor in vain, I at last took Dr. King's New Discovery, which quickly and perfectly cured me." Prompt relief and sure cure for coughs, colds, sore throat, bronchitis, etc. Positively prevents pneumonia. Guaranteed at R. R. Bellamy's drug store, price 50c. and $1.00 a bottle. Trial bottle free. **

Huge Task.

It was a hugh task, to undertake the cure of such a bad case of kidney disease, as that of C. F. Collier, of Cherokee, Ia., but Electric Bitters did it. He writes: "My kidneys were so far gone, I could not sit on a chair without a cushion; and suffered from dreadful backache, headache, and depression. In Electric Bitters, however, I found a cure, and by them was restored to perfect health. I recommend this great tonic medicine to all with weak kidneys, liver or stomach. Guaranteed by R. R. Bellamy, druggist; price 50c. **

No Secret About It.

It is no secret, that for Cuts, Burns, Ulcers, Fever Sores, Sore Eyes, Boils, etc., nothing is so effective as Bucklen's Arnica Salve. "It didn't take long to cure a bad sore I had, and it is all O. K. for sore eyes," writes D. L. Gregory, of Hope, Tex. 25c. at R. R. Bellamy's drug store. **

STIRR'S TURPENTINE.

—Mr. A. S. Huke, a spokesman for the truckers of the Fayetteville district, has written a letter to Capt. J. J. Crosswell, route agent to the Southern Express Company, including Mr. J. P. Womble, local agent, expressing thanks for efforts in furthering the interests of fruit and vegetable growers in making shipments.

—Mr. D. H. Shroyer, a man 30 years of age, who has been putting down granolithic pavements in Oxford since May 1st, committed suicide Sunday in the Hotel Currin, by taking drugs. Mr. Shroyer was the elder son of A. W. Shroyer, of Durham. He was married and leaves a wife and one child, a boy of 7 years, at Butler, Penn.

—Charlotte Evening Chronicle: The visitor of this State who wants to see the prettiest effect in trees, shrubbery, vines flowers and grass—the prettiest piece of lanscape work in the State, must make a visit to the grounds of the State Hospital, at Morganton. The famous Italian gardens play second fiddle to the hospital grounds.

—Charlotte Observer: North Carolina furniture-makers seem to be getting in on government work. It was related a few days ago that a factory at Mebane would fill a big bill for the Canal Commission, and yesterday's Observer told of an extensive contract awarded the Dalton Furniture Company, of High Point, of the Postoffice Department.

—The General Fire Extinguisher Company, with headquarters in Providence, R. I., is planning the erection of a branch factory in Charlotte at an early date. This concern, with a capitalization of several million dollars, is one of the largest manufacturers of extinguisher supplies, piping, etc., in the United States and the new enterprise will mean much for the city.

—A Newbern special on Sunday says: Word has reached here from New Orleans of the mysterious drowning of Lieut. W. T. Blaisdel, of the United States revenue cutter service on the night of June 5. Lieut. Blaisdel was an officer on the revenue cutter Boutwell, stationed at Newbern, and was well known here. His death has created much regret here. He was a valued officer and made many friends.

—Charlotte Observer: One of the remarkable stories of the day is that of the joint stock moonlight distillery which has been operated for three years by ten farmers a few miles from Raleigh in the township in which the sheriff of the county lives and the existence of which was so well known that it has been talked about openly around church doors and at Sunday school. Great is the What law in its suppression of moonshining.

—A dispatch from Kinston on Sunday says: Mr. W. S. Wallace, foreman of the sewer and water connection force, was killed to-day in a cave-in while assisting in tapping the water main for the imperial Tobacco Company's factory. He was in the ditch feeding the drill for the connection when nearly a ton of dirt fell on him and crushed his skull against the iron water pipe. His skull and collar bone were fearfully crushed and death resulted instantly. He was a member of Woodmen of the World and will be buried with the honors of that lodge to-morrow. A widow and two young children survive him.

—Mr. Stuart W. Cramer, of Charlotte, and other creditors of and stockholders in the Ryder-Cramer Wagon Works, at Thomasville, have applied for a receiver to dispose of the property of the company and settle the claims against the same, the grounds for the petition being the claim that the factory is insolvent and that it is steadily getting in worse shape. The Ryder-Cramer Wagon Works was organized with a capital stock of $25,000, being incorporated under the laws of Delaware, and has been in operation nearly four years. The petition filed alleges that the concern has steadily lost money since it began operation, this loss amountaing to 20 to 25 per cent. on the sale of every wagon. The total liabilities are stated at $12,000, or more than half the amount of the capital stock. Of the epital stock 200 shares, one-half, is held by Mr. Cramer. The failure of the company is attributed to the high cost of material and labor and to competition in the sale of wagons.

—Within sight of one of the largest branch houses of the great American Tobacco Company, there is in operation in Winston, one of the most unique and interesting little tobacco manufacturing plants that one could find anywhere. It is to Factory No. 74, of the Fifth North Carolina district, owned and operated by Mr. J. Felix Miller, located on Four and a Half street. The entire factory is not as large as some of the offices of the neighboring plants, and the machinery is most interesting. The boiler is a large stove and the pipe connections and fixtures were put in by Mr. Miller himself. The old-time method of tobacco manufacturing is carried out in this establishment and the product is, without doubt, handmade. There is no machinery for reordering and drying, but Old Dame Nature performs this work in a manner that can hardly be excelled. The entire business is carried on by Mr. Miller and two or three employes. He does much of the work himself and sells all the tobacco he can make.

—Fayetteville correspondence, Charlotte Observer: The Southern Real Estate Company has sent to a company of Northern capitalists specimens of Cumberland county soil adapted to viticulture. The company has already sent an agent here, and purposes the planting of a very large vineyard, with an expenditure of about $200,000, if a body of land can be found giving thorough satisfaction. That Cumberland county is an almost ideal grape-growing section is shown in the large vineyard, "To Kay," said to be the most extensive east of the Rocky Mountains, owned by Col. W. J. Green, and now leased to the Messrs. Garrett, of Weldon; "Happy Valley," the property of Mr. G. W. Lawrence, and "Bordeaux," owned by Mr. J. M. Pearce, besides smaller vineyards, with many individual cultivators of the vine. Large areas of the county meet the requirment for a successful grape-growing country—rolling surface, well watered, loam mixed with sand, and sub-clay. These qualities were recognized over fifty years ago by the first grape-growers, Henry L. Myrover and W. T. Horne, who planted "To Kay," Dr. D. W. C. Benbow, afterwards of Greensboro, and Dr. Scott.

A Little Care Will Save Many Wilmington Readers Future Trouble.

Watch the kidney secretions.

See that they have the amber hue of health;

The discharges not excessive or infrequent;

Contain no "brick-dust like" sediment.

Doan's Kidney Pills will do this for you.

They watch the kidneys and cure them when they're sick.

Wilmington testimony proves it.

P. C. LeMoyne, contractor, of 223 North Seventh street, says: "I did not know that the trouble with my back was caused by my kidneys not acting properly, although I noticed the secretions from those organs were dark and very irregular, sometimes free and at othe times scanty. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised and went to Bellamy's drug store and got a box. I was surprised at the result, for I have not had backache since I used them."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

A FACT PROVEN.

Should Convince Even the Most Skeptical of Its Truth.

If there is the slightest doubt in the minds of any that Dandruff germs do not exist, their belief is compelled by the fact that a rabbit innoculated with the germs became bald in six weeks' time.

It must be apparent to any person therefore that the only prevention of baldness is the destruction of the germ—which act is successfully accomplished in one hundred per cent. of cases by the application of Newbro's Herpicide.

Dandruff is caused by the same germ which causes baldness and can be prevented with the same remedy—Newbro's Herpicide.

Accept no substitute. "Destroy the cause you remove the effect."

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

GREAT TRUST COMPANY FROM THE EQUITABLE

Three Big Companies to Consolidate and Have Deposits of $169,000,000

By Wire to The Morning Star.

New York, June 12.—The organization of the largest trust company in the United States and one of the largest financial institutions of the world was said to-day to be a part of the plan of Thomas F. Ryan in negotiating the purchase of the stock of the Equitable Life Assurance Society held by James H. Hyde. Mr. Ryan's plan was reported to-day to be to consolidate the Equitable Trust Company, the Mercantile Trust Company and the Morton Trust Company, all of this city, with the last named in control. It is expected that this would result in creating a financial institution with deposits second only to those of the National City Bank of this city, which has deposits of $185,000,000. The deposits of the proposed Consolidated Trust Company would amount to $169,000,000; the capital stock to $7,000,000 and the surplus to $22,700,000. Mr. Ryan's plan was reported to-day to contemplate also the elimination of the control of subsidiary companies by the Equitable Life Assurance Society.

Thomas F. Ryan in response to a request for further details concerning the purchase of the Hyde stock gave out the following statement:

"The purchase of the stock was absolute and free from any condition or commitment as to future action. The general conditions of the trusteeship of the stock have already been announced in the letter to Mr. Cleveland. The deed of trust is now being prepared and will be made public in due course."

Chairman Morton has prepared a circular letter to the Society's general agents informing them officially of his election of plenary powers. He quotes from the letter of Mr. Ryan dealing with the trusteeship and intimates that the plans of retrenchment while of sweeping character, will not go so far as to restrict expenditures calculated to add to the Society's business.

Former President Cleveland has written a letter to Thomas F. Ryan concerning the trusteeship of the stock of the Equitable which he accepts. The letter was made public to-day, and is in part as follows:

"After a little reflection I have determined I ought to accept this service. I assume this duty upon the express condition that so far as the trustees are to be vested with discretion in the selection of directors, they are to be absolutely free and undisturbed in the exercise of their judgment; and that, so far as they are to act formally in voting for the directors conceded to policy-holders, a fair and undoubted expression of policy-holding choice will be forthcoming.

"The very general anxiety aroused by the recent unhappy dissensions in the management of the Equitable Society furnishes proof of the near relationship of our people to life insurance. These dissensions have not only injured the fame of the company immediately affected, but have impaired popular faith and confidence in the security of life insurance itself, as a provision for those who, in thousands of cases, would be otherwise helpless against the afflictive visitations of fate.

"The character of this business is such that those who manage and direct it are charged with a grave trust for those who, necessarily, must rely upon their fidelity. In these circumstances they have no right to regard the places they hold as ornamental, but rather as positions of work and duty and watchfulness. Above all things they have no right to deal with the interests entrusted to them in such a way as to subserve or become confused of complicated with their personal transactions of ventures.

"While the hope that I might aid in improving the plight of the Equitable Society has led me to accept the trusteeship tender, I cannot rid myself of the belief that what has overtaken this company is liable to happen to other insurance companies and fiduciary organizations as long as lax ideas of responsibility in places of trust are tolerated by our people. The high pressure of speculation, the madness, of ordinate business scheming and the chances taken in new and uncertain enteprises, are constantly present temptations, too often successful, in leading managers and directors away from scrupulous loyalty and fidelity to the interests of others confided to their care.

"We can better afford to slacken our pace than to abandon our old simple, American standards of honesty and we shall be safer if we regain our old habit of looking at the appropriation to personal uses of property and interests held in trust in the same light as other forms of stealing.

"Yours very truly,

"GROVER CLEVELAND."

WARM WIRELETS.

The condition of General A. P. Stewart, the ranking officer of the United Confederate Veterans, who has been seriously ill for several days at his home in Alabama, is much improved and high hopes for his recovery is entertained. He will hardly be able to attend the Confederate reunion at Louisville this week, however.

At a meeting in Chattanooga yesterday it was decided that a handsome monument should be erected in honor of the late General Henry V. Boynton. The place for its location will be decided later. The monument will probably cost in the neighborhood of $20,000 and subscriptions will be solicited from all parts of the country in order to make it national in scope.

THE BENNETTSVILLE BRANCH.

New Train Service From Fayetteville Beginning Next Monday.

Yesterday afternoon's Fayetteville Observer has the following of interest:

"Rev. C. G. Vardell, was in the city yesterday, on his way to Red Springs from Wilmington, where he has been in the interest of the extra train service on the Bennettsville Division of the A. C. L. He received assurances from the officials there that an extra train would be run from Fayetteville to Sumter and return, but that at present connection could not be made with the north-bound train, which leaves Fayetteville at 10:16 at night. Mr. Vardell particularly urged this connection, but the officials said that owing to the bad roadbed between Sumter and Bennettsville the train could not make fast enough time to reach Fayetteville at the necessary hour to make the connection.

"The new train will go into effect next Monday. It will leave Fayetteville at 5 o'clock in the morning, and returning leave Sumter at 6 o'clock, and will reach Fayetteville at 11 o'clock P. M."

THE BLOODY WAR WILL SOON CLOSE

Russia and Japan Officially Notify President Roosevelt About Plenipotentiaries

CAUSE OF NAVAL DISASTER

Sensational Statement That Russian Fleet Went Into Battle Completely Demoralized and Without Gun Practice.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Washington, June 12.—Official assurance that the President's efforts to bring Russian and Japan together to discuss peace will be crowned with success was brought to the White House to-day by Count Cassini, the Russian ambassador, who called by appointment and in the name of Emperor Nicholas formally accepted the President's "offer of good will." The following official statement regarding the conference was issued at the White House:

"Ambassador Cassini has called to express the Russian government's assent to the President' proposition, and to state that they would appoint plenipotentiaries to meet the plenipotentiaries of Japan to discuss the question of peace. The place of meeting is at present being discussed."

During the past two week, the President's efforts have been directed toward bringing the belligerents into amicable contact on the basis of a mutual agreement to consider terms of peace.

This he accomplished finally to-day. It remains now for the belligerent powers to name their plenipotentiaries and agree upon a time and place for them to meet to discuss terms and to negotiate a treaty of peace. These details are under consideration with a bright prospect that such minor differences as may exist will be resolved within a few days.

Conferences of supreme importance were held to-day in Washington. The blue room of the White House was the scene, and President Roosevelt and Count Cassini, the Russian ambassador and Kogoro Takahira, the Japanese minister, were the principal conferees. President Roosevelt now has unequivocal assurances from both Russia and Japan of the acceptance of his proposition that they will enter on negotiations for peace. The President likewise is assured of the absolute sincerity of both governments in acceding to his suggestion.

Japan was the first of the two powers to indicate its acceptance of President Roosevelt's proposition. The formal response of his identical note of Thursday last was received from the Japanese government Saturday. Informal assurances of acceptance of the President's suggestion were received from the Russian government a little late, but the assurance from St. Petersburg were not of the same definite character as had been received from Tokio. Early to-day United States Ambassador Meyer, at St. Petersburg informed this government that Russia had accepted the President's proposition and would name representatives with plenary powers to meet the plenipotentiaries of Japan. While satisfactory the response of Russia was not in the same definite form as that of Japan. It had been the expectation of the President to publish to the world the replies o. the two governments to his identical notes, ut, under the circumstances this could not be done.

"In addition to indicating the acceptance by the Russian government of President Roosevelt's proposition, Count Cassini informed the president of Russia's desire as to the place of meeting of the plenipotentiaries and named those who probably would be delegated to represent the Russian Emperor. At the conclusion of the conference, Count Cassini declined to discuss for publication the details of his interview with President Roosevelt.

It can be said that the place of the meeting of the pleaitentiatries of the two governments has not been finally selected. In the arrangement of this and other of like importance, President Roosevelt is acting as an intermediary between Russia and Japan. Rusia, through Ambassador Cassini, has indicated her preference for one place for the holding of the peace conference; and Japan through Minister Takahira has suggested another. It is intimated officially that an agreement on the place of holding the conference may be determined on in a few days, but no suggestion, except of a negotiative character, of the choice of either of the belligerents. It is known that neither Washington nor the battlefield of Manchuria was the selection of either Russia or Japan.

Vladivostok, June 12.—A series of interviews which the correspondent of the Associated Press had with naval officers who survived the battle of the Sea of Japan, has developed a most sensational story of the causes of the Russian disaster first of all and the complete demoralization which followed the sinking of the flagship Kniaz Souvaroff and the wounding of Admiral Rojestvensky. It is explained that not a single officer of the fleet knew the commander-in-chief's plans. The admirals in command of divisions knew no more than the sub-lieutenants and had to rely only on the signals of the flagship. Admiral Nebogatoff, on whom the command devolved, had seen Rojestvensky only once after the juncture of their squadrons and then only for fifteen minutes.

All the stories of extensive target practice in Madagascar it seems, was false. During the entire voyage there practically was no training in gunnery worthy of the name and the big gun practice was confined to three shots per vessel. Ugly stories are told of the happenings at Madagascar. Some of the crews certainly were untrained in gunnery, and, exhausted by the eight months voyage under trying moral and physical conditions, were no match for the veteran Japanese whose marksmanship was wonderful. The Japanese concentrated their fire on one ship until she was placed out of action and then on another, thus successively sinking the Oslabya, Alexander III. and Kniaz Souvaroff. Some ships developed deplorable structural defects. The Oslabya sank without having a single hole below the water line. Heavy seas entered the vessel above the water line and the water tight compartments which were changed several times during the voyage, did not stand the strain they had been calculated to stand, and burst, flooding and heeling the vessel over until she turned turtle.

Lack of homogeneity among the ships made it impossible to manoeuvre in harmony.

The Vladimir Monach, the Admiral Shakoff, and the Admiral Seniavin had to lag behind on this account, becoming easy victims. Finally, the ammunition was exhausted after the first day's fight.

Even the very morning of the battle while the buzzing of the wireless instruments on the Russian ships showed Japanese scouts were communicating his dispositions to Admiral Togo, Admiral Rojestvensky continued his careless manoeuvring and when the Japanese actually appeared the Russians were caught in an impossible formation and were attacked on three fronts. Rojestvensky's position was cramped and his transports were badly placed and caused confusion. While the Japanese were training projectiles even from machine guns on the Russian ships, the latter were huddled together blanketing each other fire. Only the leaders of the columns could bring their guns to bear and even those the untrained gunners fired wildly. To render matters worse the mines and floating torpedoes sown in the paths of the Russian divisions added to the confusion. The Borodino, the Admiral Lakhimoff and the Navarian fell victims to these obstructions.

It is a heartrending narrative that Russia and the world should know. The sailors and officers were not altogether to blame. The main fault lies elsewhere. There were many heroes among the Russians. Captain Berkh of the Oslabya, committed suicide on his bridge as the ship sank rather than save himself. There were thousands of other heroes whose names the world will never know.

SIX WAR SHIPS SUNK ATTACKING BALTIMORE

Theoretically The Battleship Texas, and Four Other Ships Were Sent to Bottom.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Baltimore, June 12.—In an extra edition the American gives the following account of to-day's early morning attack on Fort Howard:

Admiral Dickins did the unexpected thing by making an early morning attack on Fort Howard and the other local fortifications and three torperdo boat destroyers were theoretically blown out of the water by the artillerymen stationed at Fort Howard. Two of these answered the descriptions of the Worden and Whipple, while the third was either the McDonough, Stuart or Lawrence.

"Promptly at midnight scout boats were sent out from the local fortifications. At 12:50 o'clock these boats signalled the artillerymen at Fort Howard that the 'enemy' were approaching, and all the men at the fort were immediately called to the guns.

"Almost simultaneously the men were warned of the approach of the boats by the signals at Sandy Point. The search lights at Forts Howard, Smallwood, Armisted and Carroll were headed down the river, and very soon a destroyer resembling the Worden was detected staming up the river at full speed. Five minutes after receiving th first signals the men at Fort Howard opened fire on the approaching destroyer with rapid fire and short range guns. While the 'Worden' was theoretically blown up, she proceeded past Fort Howard and on up the river. The other forts immediately got their guns into action, and all took turns in shooting at the approaching 'enemy.'

"About fifteen minutes after the approch of the first enemy's fleet another destroyed, evidently the Whipple was discoverer. This vessel suffered the same fate as the first. A third destroyer soon made its appearance and like the other two was 'sunk.'

"The first two boats endeavored to sneak by the forts without making any demonstration, but the one in the lead was soon out of commission by striking a mine. This was signified by the ringing of a bell at Fort Howard.

"The third boat, though, put out of business, opened fire on all four of the forts and the sight was a most interesting and exciting one. Broadsides were fired by the third destroyer when it reached a point between Forts Armistead and Carroll. No lights were used on any of the boats and the fire from the guns made an imposing sight.

"It is believed that the destroyers were sent on ahead of the rest of the fleet to get the range of the forts, draw the fire and ascertain whether the men were at their guns.

Later, a fourth destroyer was discovered and 'sunk.' Then the battleship Texas, made a front demonstration, and from a seven foot knoll fired her big and little guns at Fort Howard. While the Texas was making this demonstration a swift cruiser made a flank movement and went up the bay toward Pool's Island. It was discovered in the nick of time by the men at Fort Howard, who fired on the ship. The fire was returned and after a lively skirmish, the gunners at the fort theoretically sent both the Texas and the cruiser to the bottom."

After the ineffectual attack upon Fort Howard the "enemy," as the attacking vessels are known, withdrew and steamed down Chesapeake bay to join the rest of Admiral Dickins' squadron off Sandy Point.

Enemy's Ships Slip to Washington.

Fort Monroe, Va., June 12.—The vigil of the search lights of the artillery defenses here last night was fruitless. None of the units of Admiral Dickins constituting the naval side of the joint army and navy, was picked up by the searchlights of the fort last night.

Just before day light to-day, a small craft was discovered by a searchlight, which a first was taken to be a torpedo boat destroyer, making observations of the position of the lights. Closer scrutiny showed the craft to be a fishing boat. This constituted the only record of the night's work.

The practice of the searchlights was declared to be most satisfactory. Their range, however, is far short of the twelve mile channel available to Admiral Dickins, and the supposition is that he could have run the capes and proceed to Washington and Baltimore from the ocrean unobserved, if he had so elected.

BLOODY TENNESSEE FEUD.

Three Men Killed and One Fatally Wounded.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Knoxville, Tenn., June 12.—Three men met instant deaths and a fourth was fatally wounded in a duel fought to-day in a blacksmith shop at Thorn Hill, four miles from Tate Springs, Tenn., and six miles northeast of this city. The dead men are John and Will Holland, brothers, and Will Bundren, all white and members of well known families. The wounded man is Clint Winkle, a negro, supposed to have been in the employ of Bundren. Enmity has existed between the two families for the past four years. It grew out of the killing of Col. John Crosier, by Bruce Bundren, father of the man killed to-day, for which crime the elder Bundren is serving a ife sentence in the penitentiary. Trouble which threatened Sunday was avoided, but to-day Bundren, accompanied by the negro entered the blacksmith shop of the Hollands, and after a few words firing began. Twenty shots were fired and when the smoke had cleared away three men lay dead on the floor of the shop and the fourth was mortally wounded. The Hollands used Winchesters and Bundren and Winkle used pistols. Will Holland and Bundren were married men, aged 35 and 25 years respectively. John Holland was 25 and unmarried. The death of the Hollands wipes out the entire family with the exception of the parents.

The Spanish steamer Cadilano, lately sunk at Port Inglais, has been raised and taken to Port Tampa, Fla., in tow of the tug Rescue. She will proceed in a week to Newport News.

FASTEST TRAIN ON THE GLOBE

Record Breaking Long Distance Run Between New York and Chicago

MILE IN LESS THAN 1-2 MINUTE

By wire to The Morning Star.

Chicago, June 12.—On its initial run from New York the Pennsylvania's eighteen hour "Flyer," the fastest long distance train in the world, arrived in this city at 8:52 o'clock this morning three minutes ahead of schedule time. In order to accomplish this feat, extraordinary achievements in the way of fast running were necessary. After leaving Pittsburg the tender of the big Atlantic type engine which had been attached at that city for the run to Crestine, Ohio, developed a hot box about 20 miles east of Mansfield, Ohio. The engineer stopped his train and fifteen minutes were lost in futile effort to cool the troublesome axle. Finally, a freight engine was attached and the train limped into Crestline. Here the regular engine was in waiting and when the "Flyer" left that latter piece it was 26 minutes late. The run to Fort Wayne, 131 miles away, was made in 114 1-2 minutes, an average of 68 6-10 miles an hour. When the train pulled out of Fort Wayne for the last lap of the long journey, it was only nine and a half minutes late, sixteen and a half minutes of the lost time being made up. Miles were frequently reeled off in 44 to 50 seconds and an average speed of a mile a minute was easily maintained over long stretches of track.

Already the Pennsylvania railroad officials are discussing the possibility of reducing the running time between Chicago and New York to sixteen hours.

Even Faster Run to New York.

New York, June 12.—The first eastbound train of the Pennsylvania railroad's new 18-hour service, between New York and Chicago, arrived in Jersey City at 9:22 A. M., to-day, three minutes ahead of schedule time.

The running time of the train from Chicago to Jersey City was 17 hours and 37 minutes. The engineer of the train, said, on arriving, that a short distance east of Hobart, Ind., the train covered a mile in thirty-five seconds.

Mile in Less Than Half a Minute.

Fort Wayne, Ind., June 12.—The west-bound Pennsylvania "Flyer" passed through today seventeen minutes late but the train was running on schedule at Plymouth. The 131 miles from Crestline, Ohio, to Fort Wayne, were run in 115 minutes. The fastest time was made near Ada, Ohio, where three miles were covered in eighty-five seconds, or at the rate of a mile in 28 1-3 seconds, breaking all world's railway speer records. This is at the rate of 127.3 miles an hour.

"LUMINA" THURSDAY NIGHT.

Brilliant Affair Promised in Big Scenic Production of "Pinafore."

Already there is much interest in the approaching formal opening of "Lumina," the new pavilion on Wrightsville Beach with a magnificent production of the tuneful opera, "Pinafore," on Thursday evening of this week. The same splendid cast directed by Mrs. Anne deR Harris, which participated in the presentation here last week, will appear and a brilliant success is assured. Music for the opera will be furnished by the splendid orchestra regularly engaged at "Lumina," and the event promises to be both artistic and novel. Beach residents may attend the opening for an admission of only 25 cents, while city folks may secure tickets from the Consolidated office, beginning this morning entitling the purchaser to a round-trip to the beach and return from any part of the city and an admission to the pavilion for only 50 cents.

Suit Against A. C. L.

Walter P. Gafford, Esq., yesterday filed summons with the Clerk of the Superior Court in a damage suit which he has instituted against the A. C. L. for his client, Cleveland Kelly, colored. Kelly will allege in his compaint that a week or ten days ago while passing along Nutt street on his way to the Carolina Central depot, a sluice of hot water shot out of the exhaust pipes from the shops of the company, through the embankment above the street and scalded him from his hips to the soles of his feet. Kelly says he has been under the care of a physician ever since the accident, which was witnessed by two companions, and that he is permanently injured. Mr. Gafford said he had not yet decided upon the amount of damages he would ask in behalf of the injured man.

Police Court Yesterday.

In the Mayor's court yesterday John H. Evans, colored, charged with vagrancy, was given 30 days on the roads. W. G. Hawkins, white, charged with being drunk and making a disgusting spectacle of himself on Tenth between Castle and Church streets, was also given a vacation of 30 days. Three boy bicyclists rounded up by Policeman Minshew Sunday morning, riding their wheels on upper Market street sidewalks, were given a sharp lecture by the Mayor and discharged. Joe Thomas, colored, charged with being drunk Saturday night on Market street and carrying a concealed weapon, was fined $10 and costs and sent over to the higher court for the last named offence. He was arrested by Policeman I. F. Huggins.

Installed New Pastor.

Rev. A. D. McClure, D. D., returned yesterday evening from Caswell and Black River Presbyterian churches where on Sunday he officiated at the installation of Rev. Kenneth McCaskill as pastor of the Caswell and Black River congregations, the services being held at 11 and 5 o'clock, respectively. Rev. Mr. McCaskill will be installed at Kerr's and South River on the fourth Sabbath in July. Rev. Mr. McCaskill recently came to Wilmington Presbytery from Bishopville, S. C., and his work in charge of the Caswell group of churches gives promise of much good.

Judge Emory Speer, of the U. S. Count, of South Georgia District, will deliver the lecture in the Storre's course before the Yale law school next year, according to an announcement made yesterday at New Haven.

BRAVE SOLDIER, HE WAS.

Cross of Honor for Gallant Confederate in New England Home.

Many Wilmington people, and especially Confederate veterans, will be interested in a clipping from the Hartford (Conn.) Post, of May 11th, giving an account of the receiving of a Confederate Cross of Honor by Capt. Patrick Broderick, a brother of Mrs. John Barry, of this city, and formerly captain of the police under Mayor Van Bokkelin about the year 1866 or 1867. Capt. Broderick will be pleasantly remembered oy many of the veterans as a member of Company E., of which Capt. James Wright, of Wilmington, was the commanding officer. The Cross of Honor received by Capt. Broderick was presented by Cape Fear Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, of this city. The Hartford paper says:

'Patrick Broderick, of Rocky Hill, who fought under the Confederate flag in the war of the Rebellion, yesterday, received from the organization a Cross of Honor for bravery at the Battle of Winchester.

"In speaking of the receipt of the medal, Veteran Broderick said last night: 'Although I earned it 40 years ago it is none the less acceptable to me. I volunteered in the Confederate army in 1861, joining the First regiment North Carolina Volunteers just after the first shot had been fired at Fort Sumter Our division became attached to the famous Stonewall Jackson Corps at the battle of Gaines Mill, commencing the seven days' fight below Richmond. I was in the thick of the fighting at the battle of Winchester when I was wounded and taken prisoner. In the the same year I was exchanged with 10,000 others at Fort Pulaski on the Savannah river. If Uncle Sam ever wants fighters again Old Dixie will battle for the flag side by side with the Boys in Blue."

THE O. A. N. PROPERTY.

TRUCKING TEST FARM.

Special Meeting of the Chamber of Commerce To-day Noon.

By request, President J. A. Taylor has called a special meeting of the Chamber of Commerce to be held today at noon. The subject of consideration is the location of the proposed trucking test farm by the State Board of Agriculture. As recently noted in the Raleigh telegrams to the Star the test farm matter has been re-opened and there is yet a possibility of Wilmington's securing the enterprise For the purpose of adopting the best methods of presenting the matter to the committee from the Board of Agriculture when it visits this city, the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce is called to-day and it is earnestly requested that there be a full attendance of members.

CAPT. MOORE A BENEDICT.

Popular Seafaring Man Claims Bride at Morehead City.

Morehead City, N. C., June 12.—The marriage here of Miss Eudora Wallace and Captain Robert Moore was a lovely one, being celebrated at the Methodist church, elaborately decorated. Rev. R. H. Willis performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a lovely going away gown of gray silk with hat to match and carried a white book with a white rose through it. Miss Sallie Arthur as maid of honor was daintily attired in white organdy with white chiffon hat.

The bride is the lovely and accomplished daughter of Capt. W. J. Wallace. Her husband is master of the schooner "C. C. Lister," plying between Wilmington and New York, and a native of Washington, N. C., where they will reside after a bridal trip North.

Jap Doctor Robbed.

"Dr." H. Cox, an itinerant medicine man claiming to be of Japanese extraction, reported to the police station late last night that he had been robbed of something over $53 by a colored woman named Henrietta Jones, who has a place of habitation in Kellogg's alley, near Fourth and Brunswick streets. Cox said the woman lured him into her house and presently she departed. He felt for his money and it was gone. The woman was arrested and locked up. She will be given preliminary trial by the Mayor at noon to-day.

Royal Arcanum Excursion.

Something new and novel is promised in a "moonlight and search light" excursion to be given by Carolina Council, Royal Arcanum, on Tuesday night up and down the river on the steamer Wilmington, leaving the city at 8 o'clock sharp. The party will go up the river as far as Magnolia Grove and down the river to Old Town. The excursion gives a rare opportunity to visit the beautiful Magnolia grove, sometimes known as "lovers' retreat."

Charlotte Excursion To-day.

A big excursion over the Seaboard Air Line from Charlotte and intermediate points, personally conducted by Mr. Frank Gough, will reach here early this afternoon and remain in the city until to-morrow afternoon. The steamer Wilmington will make a special run to sea Wednesday morning for the benefit of the visitors. The train leaves Charlotte at 7:30 o'clock this morning.
